

A SENATORIAL CITATION

by

SENATOR TROY BALDERSON

June 30, 2017

On behalf of the Ohio State Senate, I am pleased to extend special recognition to you:

Kanji Japanese Steakhouse

on being named the Best of Fairfield County.

You are indeed worthy of high praise, for you have worked tirelessly to develop your community relationships as well as your countywide reputation as the best Asian restaurant in Fairfield County. Your staff has displayed a remarkable willingness to attain superior results, and through your tremendous efforts, you have set an example worthy of emulation.

Over the years, you have shared your energy and abilities with the community around you, and you have clearly shown the potential of a hardworking staff to have a positive effect on the quality of life in our society. You have displayed a sincere desire to fully cultivate your relationships with those around Fairfield County and this, coupled with your determination and initiative, shows your potential to continue your successful work within a supportive community.

Thus, with great pleasure, we commend you on winning Best of Fairfield County 2017, and salute you as one of Ohio's finest institutions.

A handwritten signature in blue ink, reading "Troy Balderson".

Troy Balderson
State Senator
20th District